The bridal party gathers at The Restaurant at Mtoni Marine for drinks (optional). From here they walk along the beach and board a traditional sailing dhow and set sail to a nearby sandbank. On arrival at the sandbank, the groom is escorted to the ceremony venue by Father Charles. The bride follows with the Swahili jazz duo, Seca Sound. The ceremony takes place with feet in the sand, surrounded by the Indian Ocean. After the ceremony, the couple toasts with sparkling wine overlooking Bawe and Prison Islands and they celebrate their union, while Seca Sound provides the entertainment. Board the dhows and sail back to Mtoni where the bonfires on the beach guide the dhows in.
